Aquatic Preserve Society 2020 Annual Report

Prior to January 1, 2020 the Aquatic Preserve Society operated in the State Fiscal Year (July 1- June 30). Per the request by the Department of Environmental Protection, Office of Resiliency and Coastal Protection (ORCP) the Society has adopted a calendar year based fiscal year (January 1 – December 30). During the 2019 calendar year, the Society accomplished the following:

Business

The Society held nine teleconferences and the annual face to face meeting. Teleconferences are typically one hour long and held on the fourth Wednesday of each month. The annual meeting is an all-day event and was held in the Enterprise Museum in Enterprise, Florida. The Society's Living Water Exhibit was on display at the facility.

The Society manages nineteen public interest and other projects for ORCP and several aquatic preserve offices.

The Society reviewed and amended its Bylaws, Mission Statement and Ethics Policy. The revised Ethics Policy was distributed to board members for their review to ensure compliance.

There was discussion of the DEP Public Interest policy. Previously, specific projects were authorized by DEP for satisfaction of Public Interest requirements. DEP modified the policy and allows Public Interest funds to be used for any activity that complies with the aquatic preserve management plans. The Society was uncomfortable making the compliance determination and asked ORCP to perform that task.

The two-year terms were completed for Board members Cain, Donley and Nall, and were reappointed.

Slate of Officers –President Terry Cain and Secretary/Treasurer Larry Nall were retained. Deborah Shelley was appointed to the vacant Vice President position.

The ORCP has hired Dana Strickland as their new liaison with the aquatic preserves citizens groups, including the APS. Welcome Dana.

Living Waters Exhibit

Management of the Living Waters photographic exhibit comprised a large part of the Society's activity. The exhibit was donated to the Society by noted fine art photographer, Clyde Butcher, for the purposes of education and fund raising to promote the goals of the aquatic preserve program.

The Board considered and approved the loan of the exhibit to Sidney & Berne Davis Art Center. There was considerable discussion about what makes a venue appropriate for display of the Society's exhibit, plus when and what to charge for use of the exhibit. In general, the Board felt use by Aquatic Preserve offices and CSOs would not require a fee, but outside organizations should, especially when they are well funded. The Board intends to develop a policy to support this sort of decision. The exhibitor also asked if the funds they donated for use of the exhibit could be reserved for use by the local aquatic preserves. It was the consensus of the Board that the funds be reserved for care of the exhibit. The Sidney & Berne Davis exhibition committed $500 for use of the exhibit, $250 as a deposit and $250 use fee. A grant was also obtained that matched the fee. Liz Donley and Terry Cain attended the event for the Society.

Irene from the Indian River Lagoon Aquatic Preserve Office picked up the exhibit, which was being stored at the Charlotte Harbor Aquatic Preserve Office and transported it to the Wabasso Island Environmental Learning Center (ELC) for display. The ELC has expressed an interest in developing a virtual Living Waters Exhibit, which will include more information about the aquatic preserve program and its history.

Deborah Shelley has interest from Stetson University and the City of Tavares on the use of the exhibit.

Inspection of the exhibit, after these showings, has found that it needs some cleaning, the storage bags are worn, and better storage and transport crates would be helpful. Other items to improve the exhibition would be banners, tablecloths, easels, popups and descriptive text of each image in the exhibit. Deborah is considering developing a grant to provide maintenance and upgrades to the exhibit storage and presentation.

Larry Nall met Elam Stolfus, the cinematographer that developed the Living Waters video, at the Apalachicola NERR anniversary celebration. Elam still has the master for the video that accompanied the exhibit during its original showings. He can cut additional copies for sale by the Society, if desired. We would have to collect sales tax, if we do this.

Cooperation with DEP

Shana Kinsey (ORCP) proposed a grant application on which the Society and ORCP could partner. This would be a grant from the City of Pensacola to help support the Florida Coastal Management Meeting. ORCP wrote the proposal, and APS transmitted to Pensacola, and would manage the funds, if received. The proposal was not funded, but Visit Pensacola did commit to provide transport of attendees from the meeting to various Pensacola venues. Meeting costs were donated by the Society and several CSOs to the ORCP. The Society collected the donations and paid the vendor.

Randy Runnels, manager of the Tampa aquatic preserves, approached the Society for assistance in planning and funding a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the designation of the Boca Ciega Aquatic Preserve. Specifically, the Society would handle all funds raised and pay the various vendors. Several board members had experience in planning such events and there was a lengthy discussion. There was a short deadline, but Randy had a strong group of volunteers he felt could do it. Volunteers raised and handled all funds, and did all event planning, so the Society did not have to become directly involved. The Regional Planning Council paid for the event facility, printing a program, invitations and caterers. The celebration was Sept 19 at the St. Petersburg College Seminole Campus. There was a reception, digital virtual reality programs, kiosks, and a formal program. Passion for the area and support of the program was very evident. Displays showed the work of preserve staff and other researchers. The planning group may start a CSO to serve the Tampa Bay aquatic preserves. Terry Cain, Heather Stafford and Larry Nall attended the event for the Society.

CODE OF ETHICS

PREAMBLE

- (1) It is essential to the proper conduct and operation of (herein "APS") that its board members, officers, and employees be independent and impartial and that their position not be used for private gain. Therefore, the Florida Legislature in Section 112.3251, Florida Statute (Fla. Stat.), requires that the law protect against any conflict of interest and establish standards for the conduct of APS board members, officers, and employees in situations where conflicts may exist.
- (2) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state that no APS board member, officer, or employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or incur any obligation of any nature which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties for the APS. To implement this policy and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people in Citizen Support Organizations, there is enacted a code of ethics setting forth standards of conduct required of APS board members, officers, and employees in the performance of their official duties.

STANDARDS

The following standards of conduct are enumerated in Chapter 112, Fla. Stat., and are required by Section 112.3251, Fla. Stat., to be observed by APS board members, officers, and employees.

1. Prohibition of Solicitation or Acceptance of Gifts

No APS board member, officer, or employee shall solicit or accept anything of value to the recipient, including a gift, loan, reward, promise of future employment, favor, or service, based upon any understanding that the vote, official action, or judgment of the APS board member, officer, or employee would be influenced thereby.

2. Prohibition of Accepting Compensation Given to Influence a Vote

No APS board member, officer, or employee shall accept any compensation, payment, or thing of value when the person knows, or, with reasonable care, should know that it was given to influence a vote or other action in which the APS board member, officer, or employee was expected to participate in his or her official capacity.

3. Salary and Expenses

No APS board member or officer shall be prohibited from voting on a matter affecting his or her salary, expenses, or other compensation as an APS board member or officer, as provided by law.

4. Prohibition of Misuse of Position

An APS board member, officer, or employee shall not corruptly use or attempt to use one's official position or any property or resource which may be within one's trust, or perform official duties, to secure a special privilege, benefit, or exemption.

5. Prohibition of Misuse of Privileged Information

No APS board member, officer, or employee shall disclose or use information not available to members of the general public and gained by reason of one's official position for one's own personal gain or benefit or for the personal gain or benefit of any other person or business entity.

6. Post-Office/Employment Restrictions

A person who has been elected to any APS board or office or who is employed by an APS may not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before the governing body of the APS of which he or she was a board member, officer, or employee for a period of two years after he or she vacates that office or employment position.

7. Prohibition of Employees Holding Office

No person may be, at one time, both an APS employee and an APS board member at the same time.

8. Requirements to Abstain From Voting

An APS board member or officer shall not vote in official capacity upon any measure which would affect his or her special private gain or loss, or which he or she knows would affect the special gain or any principal by whom the board member or officer is retained. When abstaining, the APS board member or officer, prior to the vote being taken, shall make every reasonable effort to disclose the nature of his or her interest as a public record in a memorandum filed with the person responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting, who shall incorporate the memorandum in the minutes. If it is not possible for the APS board member or officer to file a memorandum before the vote, the memorandum must be filed with the person responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting no later than 15 days after the vote.

9. Failure to Observe APS Code of Ethics

Failure of an APS board member, officer, or employee to observe the Code of Ethics may result in the removal of that person from their position. Further, failure of the APS to observe the Code of Ethics may result in the Florida Department of Environmental Protection terminating its Agreement with the APS.

Adopted this 22nd day of May, 2019 by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors.
