

Recreational Trails Program FY2024-2025 Application Webinar Poll Questions

January 17, 2023

Poll Questions

QUESTION 1
The Land and Recreation Grants Section is located within the Division of Recreation and Parks at the Florida Department of Environmental Protection.	• True
	• False
False; The Land and Recreation Grants Section is located within the Division of State Lands at the Florida Department of Environmental Protection. See slide 10 for additional information.
QUESTION 2
There are three eligible types of RTP development categories: Pedestrian, Equestrian and Motorized.	• True
	• False
False; There are three eligible types of RTP development categories: Motorized trails, nonmotorized trails, and trail amenities. See slide 12 for additional information.
QUESTION 3
FY2024-2025 RTP Applications may be submitted online, via e-mail and/or hand delivered.	• True
	• False
False; FY2024-2025 RTP Applications must be submitted through the postal mail from February 1, 2024 through March 1, 2024, and post-marked no later than March 1, 2024. See slide 22 for additional information.
QUESTION 4
RTP projects that include less than $500,000 qualify for FHWA's Build America, Buy America waiver issued in August of 2023.	• True
	• False
True; RTP projects that include less than $500,000 qualify for FHWA's Build America, Buy America waiver issued in August of 2023. See slides 39-40 for additional information.
QUESTION 5
Applicants must demonstrate adequate site control at the time of application.	• True
	• False
True; Applicants must demonstrate adequate site control at the time of application. The project site must be on public lands, with appropriate documentation demonstrating applicant ownership or lease. See slides 31-35 for additional information.
QUESTION 6
Project sponsors may select a match ratio of 100:0 of Part III, Financial Information.	• True
	• False
False; sponsor match is both a federal and state requirement for RTP projects. Applicants may select either a 50:50, 60:40 or 80:20 match ratio. See slide 47 for additional information.
QUESTION 7
There is no required supporting documentation for the RTP Application.	• True
	• False
False; while some supporting documentation is elective to receive additional points, many documents are required to compete for funding, such as the boundary map, site control, and conceptual site plan. See slides 58-78 for additional information.
QUESTION 8
Project sponsors must respond to an issued Deficiency Report within 15 calendar days or the submitted application will be ineligible to compete for funding.	• True
	• False
True; Applicants must respond to issued Deficiency Reports within 15 working days, as outlined in the program's guidance. See slide 80 for additional information.	